

College Premises During the Coronavirus Pandemic

- Access to the premises and buildings of Bard College Berlin is restricted to members of the college: students, faculty and staff. In general, visitors are not permitted.
- If any member of the college experiences symptoms associated with Covid-19 or learns that they may have been exposed to coronavirus, they must immediately isolate themselves from all college members and notify the college.

Students, please email the Head of Student Life

(b.gallagher@berlin.bard.edu) and your professors. You may also use the college's 24-hour emergency phone line (+49-1575 7926095).

In addition, students should call the Berlin government Coronavirus Hotline and follow its professional guidance on quarantine and testing (+49-30-18 272 2720, Monday to Friday, 8.00-18.00h). Student Life staff can assist with arranging care and finding testing, as available when requested.

- Social distancing has to be maintained whenever possible. This means that every individual must seek to maintain a distance of at least 1.5 meters from all other individuals. Please maintain this distance also when gathering outside, for example in the cafeteria garden.
- All rooms must be vented regularly, with all windows fully open for at least 5 minutes. Teaching and meeting rooms must be vented at least once every 45 minutes for at least 5 minutes, with all windows and doors fully open.
- Maximum room capacities (as posted) must not be exceeded.
- Apart from course attendance, any inside gatherings with members of more than one household must be avoided. Inside gatherings where social distancing cannot be maintained are not permitted.
- All members of the community must wash their hands regularly.

- Bard College Berlin expects all community members to download and utilize the Corona-Warn App to track any potential exposure to individuals who have tested positive, provided that their cellphones have the necessary capacity.
- Masks (“Mund-Nase-Bedeckungen”) should be worn whenever possible.

Masks MUST be worn	Masks are not required
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whenever social distancing cannot be maintained, • Inside academic and administrative buildings, • While waiting in line inside in the cafeteria, • While speaking with faculty or staff in their offices, unless otherwise directed by faculty or staff, • During seminars. (Faculty may permit temporary removal by individuals.) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Outdoors (except where social distancing cannot be maintained), • In your on-campus residence or “household” (your on-campus apartment or W16), • While eating in the cafeteria or in another indoor space (where social distancing can be maintained), • While studying, practicing, or meeting in a small group in the library, reading room, computer lab, or other campus space, but only if social distancing can be maintained).

(Excerpt from: Special Policies and Procedures During the Coronavirus Pandemic, August 28 to December 31, 2020)